Our target

Enthusiasts about food

Participants in our events love local products and want to know and taste the zero km excellence, and then tell their experience.

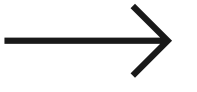

Local companies

Our companies associated want to make themselves known to the public and show their reality to buyers and stakeholders.

Public entities and trade associations

There are several entities and trade associations that involve us in their events and in their projects for the development of the territory.

Why join us

To promote a territory rich in excellence

To create networks and synergies between public and private

To create a unique local brand
